1. Using anatomical terms what is the name for a term for a body cut into horizontal and vertical sections.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. Travel through the exhibit and list 5 organ systems.
   Bonus: List all 11

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. How many chambers are in the heart? ________________

4. What are the names of the three bones found in the inner ear? These bones are the smallest bones in the human body!

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

5. Visit the specimen of the skeleton: Where do you think the longest bone in the body is found? Bonus: Can you name this bone?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

6. Travel throughout the exhibit and find the name of 5 bones found in the human body.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

7. Travel throughout the exhibit and name two joints in the body.

________________________________________________________________________
8. Did you know the spine is made up of multiple types of vertebrae? Sketch the three types of vertebrae found in the spine.

Cervical  Thoracic  Lumbar

9. Visit the lung exhibit. What do you notice about the healthy lung vs. the smoker’s lung? Do you think it is healthy to smoke? Why or why not?

10. What is the function of the cerebellum?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________