Field Trip Guide

Chaperone’s Name: ____________________________

Behavior & Conduct:
- Chaperones are expected to provide supervision for their students at all times, as well as assisting them with appropriate behavior and educational interactions with exhibits.
- Students are expected to adhere to their school’s or organization’s code of conduct while visiting the Science Center.

Teacher Contact: ____________________________________________________________

Students in your group:

__________________________________________  ______________________________________

__________________________________________  ______________________________________

__________________________________________  ______________________________________

__________________________________________  ______________________________________

__________________________________________  ______________________________________

__________________________________________  ______________________________________

Today’s Schedule:
Time:  Location:  Program and Event:
Please plan to arrive at least 5 minutes early to your scheduled activities.

____________________  _________________________  _________________________

____________________  _________________________  _________________________

____________________  _________________________  _________________________

____________________  _________________________  _________________________

____________________  _________________________  _________________________

Thank you for being a chaperone!